Selling and Marketing Strategy - How it Work ...

Setting up “trunk-shows” of “your” jewelry and accessories at private parties has been proven the most lucrative way to sell. Sales venues could be coffees, luncheons or cocktail parties with your friends, family, and business associates---organized locally, around the country or around the world

Charity events, fundraisers, sporting events, schools or country club events are also a great place to sell our glamorous jewelry and accessories. Let your imagination run wild.

Other Options

Working out of your home, marketing for the Valerie Peyton Horn Collection by telephone. This would be setting up show schedules. The shows and numbers would all be provided.
